And the meeting agreed on to make historical learning more fascinating with the help of employing different “Teaching-Aids”. Students also expressed their views on History as an academic discipline.

After this short meeting, the Team set to Chawngtlai & Khawhai to witness various historical sites. Students are amazed to see a living ‘Sahlam’ Tree in Chawngtlai where head were hang as trophies in pre-colonial era. After this, many more sites are visited and all the participants actively listen to a local tourist guide, who was employed for the day.
