AAA Follow up Action Report

Academic & Administrative Audit was conducted in Govt. Khawzawl College in 2022. The Team members lauded the performance of the institution and provided some suggestions for further improvement. For example, the team members suggested for proper documentation of the college events, better research mobilization and increasing of the collection of library books. The suggestions have been gladly accepted and a positive outcome has been noticed in terms of research progress & documentation of events. Departmental library has also been set up.
